Discover the actual space potential of your hospital with room utilization data.

Do we need more space?

Do we need more room for day-care patients? For equipment storage? What about more offices?

Space related decisions are always difficult and very costly. Making them without the actual data about how space is used can result in futile investments.
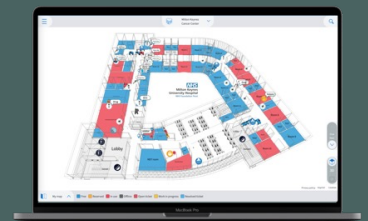

From guessing to facts-based decisions

- Know exactly which spaces are used and how much
- Optimize the usage of rooms based on how people use them
- Avoid unnecessary (re)constructions
